Use your own image

There are a couple of things to check to be sure your image will work on an Art radiator. You will need quite a large, high quality photo and you need to consider what the photo will look like when its cropped to fit the radiator.

You can find the radiator sizes on the price list in our brochure.

Search iStockphoto

If you don't have a suitable image in your own collection then iStockphoto is the place to find one. iStockphoto has millions of royalty-free photographs and illustrations to buy.

Simply use the search to find exactly what you want, be as general or specific as you like. Once you have found the right image you need to register and download the file. Generally you need the highest resolution, but if you are in doubt then give us a call. Finally email the photo to us.
